

Preventive strategy

A preventive dose of complementary parasitoid species allows the control of all arriving aphids whatever the aphid species (no identification needed)

1

→ First release on a clean crop → preventive

2

→ Arriving aphids rapidly detected and parasitized

3

→ Isolated mummies found in the crop. No aphid population development